Sister Hazel - Your Winter

```
Tom: G
Intro: G D Em C
                   D
Gray ceiling on the earth,
                     Em
well it lasted for a while
                                C
Take my thoughts for what they're worth,
I been acting like a child
                      D
Your opinion, what is that?
                         Fm
Just a different point of view, oh
G
                           D
What else what else can i do,
                          Em
                              C
I said I'm sorry, yeah I'm sorry oh no no
                            D
I said I'm sorry, but what for,
                   Em
If i hurt you then i hate myself
                 С
and I don't wanna hate myself,
                D
don't wanna hurt you
pre-chorus:
     Em
D
Why do you chew your pain,
                           D
if you only knew how much I love you Chorus:
                Am C
G D
I won't be your winter,
       Em
                              C
I won't be anyones excuse to cry
G D Am C
We can be forgiven, (oh yeah)
     D Em
and I will be here, yeah
G D Em C
Old picture on the shelf,
                           Fm
well it's been there for a while
                    C
A frozen image of ourselves,
```
