

Sixpence None The Richer - Rosemary Hill

tom:

A B
So have you heard of Rosemary Hill

A B
Where the bikers crash and the skaters spill?

A B
Where the runners train and the cars fly on by

A B
At the end of my street there's Rosemary Hill

A B
My Rosemary Hill

A B
Maybe you've fallen down Rosemary Hill

A B
It took layers of my skin, lots of blood that I spilled

A B
Kissed a boy at the bottom, then I ran to the top

A B
My heart was beating so fast I thought it might pop

A B
All over Rosemary Hill

E7 A
That was a long time ago

B A
But the feelings, they don't get old

E7 A
Every time that I come home

B A B
I'll be riding, I'll be flying on Rosemary Hill

A B
My Rosemary Hill

A B
Do you remember that downhill run

A B
When your face killed a hornet and it cracked like a gun?

While the cars watched us tumble through the four way and beyond

A B
We got up and laughed we should've been dead and gone

A B
On Rosemary Hill

A B
On my Rosemary Hill

E7 A
That was a long time ago

B A
But the feelings, they don't get old

E7 A
Every time that I come home

B
I'll be riding, I'll be flying

E7 A
That was a long time ago

B A
But the feelings, they don't get old

E7 A
Every time that I come home

B
I'll be riding, I'll be flying

A B
On Rosemary Hill

A B
My Rosemary Hill

E7 A
That was a long time ago

E7 A
That was a long time ago

E7 A
That was a long time ago

E7 A
That was a long time ago
