

Skank - I Want You

Tom: G

The G guilty undertaker sighs
Bm The lonesome organ grinder cries
Em The silver saxophones say I should refuse you
C The cracked bells and washed-out horns
D Blow into my face with scorn
Em But it's not that way
D I wasn't born to lose you

G I want you
Bm I want you
Em I want you
D So bad
G I want you

G The drunken politicians leaps
Bm Upon the street where mothers weep
Em And the saviours who are fast asleep
D They wait for you
C And I wait for them to interrupt
D Me drinkin' from my broken cup
Em And ask for me
D To open up the gate for you

G I want you
Bm I want you
Em I want you
D So bad
G I want you

G Bm Now all my fathers, they've gone down
Em

True love, they've been without it
D But all their daughters put me down
C 'Cause I think about it
D Well, I returned to the Queen of Spades
Bm And talk with my chambermaid
Em She knows that I'm not afraid
D To look at her
C She is good to me
D And there's nothing she doesn't see
Em She knows where I'd like to be D But it doesn't matter
G I want you
Bm I want you
Em I want you
D I want you
D So bad
G I want you

G Now your dancing child with his Chinese suit
Bm He spoke to me, I took his flute
Em No, I wasn't very cute to him
D Was I?
C But I did it, though, because he lied
D Because he took you for a ride
Em And because time was on his side
D And because I...

G I want you
Bm I want you
Em I want you
D I want you
D So bad
G Honey I want you
