

Skid Row - Born A Beggar

Tom: C
Intro: - F A F A - G
Verse - F A F A - G Bridge - C F A G
chorus - F C F A - G

RIF - Intro and Verse

F A F
As the day breaks through the doorway and i'm still chained to this house but you call me and I follow and act like i'm so proud still reading the sidewalk and it smells like morning news and I don't know why I still can't seem to pull away from you

F A
Watch the window
time means nothing
watch the window
'til I see you coming

F C
Born a beggar
will you ever
see me more than Pavlov's hungry dog
see no colours
live another
day to feed on everything you are...
and you are

When the day sleeps and the sunshine no longer burns my eyes and the sound of your footsteps is the only thing that lies between me and the feeling that life fills these four walls that cage me completely just waiting on your call

F A
Watch the window
time means nothing
watch the window
'til I see you coming

F C
Born a beggar
will you ever
see me more than Pavlov's hungry dog
see no colours
live another
day to feed on everything you are...
and you are

I run for you
a fall so hard
my secrets are buried in the yard
SOL0

F C Born a beggar
will you ever
see me more than Pavlov's hungry dog
see no colours
live another
day to feed on everything you are...
on everything you are
on everything you are
on everything you are

Acordes

