

Skid Row - One Light

Tom: G

Verse: There's a sound in my head
 Holy wine, breakin' bread
 Between time and what we said
 Drifts the innocence we've shed
 In this moment there's a day for a sad and broken babe
 There's a fracture on this hallowed ground where we lay

Chorus: One light burns, one light fades
 Behind the door are better days
 When the light shines on me
 I'll know the world still turns
 One light burns
 One light burns

Verse: There's a prayer on the wall
 One by one say them all
 Why we run before we crawl
 Stands the reasons that we fall

In the flower there's a field
 Sublime but so surreal
 There's a fracture on this sacred ground to be healed

Chorus: One light burns, one light fades
 Behind the door are better days
 When the light shines on me
 I'll know the world still turns

One light burns
 One light burns
 One light burns

One light burns, one light fades
 Behind the door are better days
 When the light shines on me
 I'll know the world still turns

One light burns, one light fades
 Behind the door are better days
 When the light shines on me
 I'll know the world still turns

One light burns, one light fades
 Behind the door are better days
 When the light shines on me
 I'll know the world still turns
 One light burns
 One light burns
 One light burns
 One light burns
