Skillet - Forgiven

```
Tom: C
                                                            Forever yours and yours alone
  (intro)
                                                                   С
                                                                                 G
                                                           Now I'm in our secret place
Am F
                                                           Alone in your embrace
(intro) Am Em F C (3x)
                                                                                    G
                                                                 C
                                                           Where all my wrongs have been erased Am G
Δm
         Em
Forgive me now cause I
                                                           You have forgiven
          C
                                                            С
                                                                       G
Have been unfaithful
                                                           All the promises and lies
                               F
                                    С
                                                                F
Am Em
                                                           Am
Don't ask me why cause I don't know
                                                           All the times I compromise
      Em
Am
                                                           All the times you were denied
Am G
So many times I've tried
F
      C
                                                           You have forgiven
But was unable
Am Em
                          F
                                 G
This heart belongs to you alone
                                                            (Am Em F C )
                                                            (Am Em F C)
      С
                     G
Now I'm in our secret place
Am F
                                                                     F
                                                            Am
 Am
                                                           I get down on my knees
Alone in your embrace C
Where all my wrongs have been erased
Am G
                        G
                                                            Feel your love wash over me
                                                            Am
                                                           There will never be another
You have forgiven
C G
С
                                                           You're the only one forever
All the promises and lies
                                                               F
                                                                         G F
                                                           G
                                                           And you know I'm yours alone
              E.
Am
All the times I compromise
C G
                                                                  С
                                                                                 G
All the times you were denied
Am G
                                                           Now I'm in our secret place,
Am F
You have forgiven
                                                           Alone in your embrace
                                                                                    G
                                                                 C
                                                           Where all my wrongs have been erased Am G
(intro) (Am Em F C )
   Em
                                                           You have forgiven
Am
Forgive me I'm ashamed
                                                            C
                                                                        G
                                                           All the promises and lies
          C
I've loved another
                                                                      F
                        F
                                                           All the times I compromise
      Em
                                 С
Am
                                                                 G
I can't explain cause I don't know
                                                           All the times you were denied
Am Em
No one can take your place
                                                           Am
                                                                  G
                                                           You have forgiven
And there is no other
                       F
   Em
                             G
                                                            (CGAmF)
Am
                                                            (C G Am G C )
```

ukulele-chords.com

