Sleeping At Last - Neptune

```
Tom: C
  [Verse]
Pitch black, pale blue
                                             Am
There was a stained glass, variation of the truth
And I felt empty handed
You let me set sail, with cheap wood
So I patched up every leak that I could
         Em
Till the blame grew too heavy
Stitch by stitch, I tear apart
If brokenness is a form of art
I must be a poster child prodigy
Thread by thread I come apart
If brokenness is a work of art
Surely this must be my masterpiece
[Chorus]
  F
I'm only honest when it rains
If I time it right, the thunder breaks
       Am
When I open my mouth
                         F
I wanna tell you but I don't know how
  F
I'm only honest when it rains
An open book, with a torn out page
       Am
And my inks run out
                        F
Em
I wanna love you but I don't know how
I don't know how
     C
                    Fm
No I don't know how
I don't know how
I wanna love you but I don't know how
I don't know how
                        С
                                      Fm
I wanna love you but I don't know how
                         F
I wanna love you but I don't know how
             G
I wanna love you
[Verse]
Pitch black, pale blue
                               Am
These wild oceans shake whats left of me
   Am
                  Em
