

Sleeping With Sirens - Legends

tom:
Capostrate na 3ª casa

We could be legends, we could be legends
We could be legends, we could be legends
We could be legends after all

Hey woh-oh-oh
We could be legends after all
Hey woh-oh-oh
We could be legends after all

Do you remember being young
The world in our hands, your heart in a song
Do you remember being young (remember, remember) Nothing's ever what it seems Forget who you are, forget how to dream
I think it's time that we believe (remember, remember)

We could be wild, we could be free
We can be anything in life we wanna be
We could move mountains
We could break walls
We can stand tall enough to fight and never fall

We could be legends after all
Hey woh-oh-oh
We could be legends after all
Hey woh-oh-oh
We could be legends after all

Do you remember growing up
Standing all alone, your back to the sun
Do you remember growing up (remember, remember)
Tell me how it's gonna be, if we win or lose wear your heart on your sleeve
I think it's time that we believe (remember, remember)

We could be wild, we could be free
We can be anything in life we wanna be
We could move mountains
We could break walls
We can stand tall enough to fight and never fall
We could be legends after all
Hey woh-oh-oh
We could be legends after all
Hey woh-oh-oh
We could be legends after all

We could be legends, we could be legends (we could be legends after all)
We could be legends, we could be legends

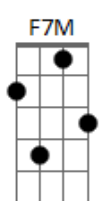

Stand up and shout it out if you want it (remember, remember)
Reach out and touch the sky 'cause you got it
We'll be here forever
Stand up and shout it out if you want it (remember, remember)
Reach out and touch the sky 'cause you got it
We'll be here forever

We could be wild, and we could be free
We can be anything in life we wanna be
We could move mountains, we could break walls
We can stand tall enough to fight and never fall

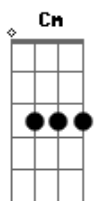

We could be legends after all
Hey woh-oh-oh
We could be legends after all
Hey woh-oh-oh
We could be legends after all

Stand up and shout it out if you want it (remember, remember)
Reach out and touch the sky 'cause you got it (remember, remember)
We'll be here forever
