Sleeping With Sirens - Roger Rabbit

```
Tom: G
Intro:

Is there a right way for how this goes?
You got your friends, and you got your foes.
They want a piece of something hot,
Forget your name like they forgot.

Ain't that something?

Some wanna see you crash and burn,
And criticize your every word
I'm tryna keep from goin' insane,
Ain't that the way of this whole damn thing?

                           C
Trying to be something, more.
C             G
Nobody's gonna love you if,
    D             Em7
You can't display, a way to capture this.
C             G
Nobody's gonna hold your hand,
    D
And guide you through,
    Em7
No, it's up for you to understand.
C             G
Nobody's gonna feel your pain,
    D
When all is done,
    Em7               C
And it's time for you to walk away.
               G
So when you have today,
        D         Em7
You should say all that you have to say.

Say all that you have to say.

Is there a right way for being strong?
Feels like I'm doing things all wrong.
Still I'm here just holdin' on,
Confess my heart and forgive my wrongs.

                           C
Just tryna show you something, more.

C             G
Nobody's gonna love you if,
    D             Em7
You can't display, a way to capture this.
C             G
Nobody's gonna hold your hand,

So when you have today,
        D         Em7
You should say all that you have to say.

Em                                    G
Don't point the blame when you can't find nothing.

Look to yourself, and you might find something.    D
It's time that we sorted out,
Em7
All of the things, we complain about.
Em                                    G
So listen close to the sound of your soul,
                     D         Em7
Take back a life we lived once before.

Em7
If it ain't you, then who?
                            C         G
If it ain't you, then who is gonna love you?

C             G
Nobody's gonna love you if,
    D             Em7
You can't display, a way to capture this.
C             G
Nobody's gonna hold your hand,
