

Slime Rancher - 1,000 Light Years Away

Tom: G

Intro: G

Oh please don't say that you'll go
 My heart can't bear the news
 Just knowing that you'll be
 A thousand light years away if you do
 And will you know when it's through
 When you, find what you're looking for
 Will you, know what to do
 A thousand light years away when you do
 Oh when you do
 And I should have said it before you were gone
 Cause I'm kicking myself for waiting oh so long
 And I should have held you near
 Every time I feared

That somehow you just wouldn't feel the same

So please don't say that you'll go
 My heart can't bear the news

Just knowing that you'll be
 A thousand light years away if you do
 Oh if you do
 Well I'm just sitting here gazing up at the stars
 Let's say we pick one out
 And call the whole thing ours
 And even though that light we see
 Ain't the same for you and me
 Well you'll know and I'll know
 That you and I can even be
 A thousand light years away and I'd still love you
 Oh yes I do
 I love you
