                                                                  But all of that was ripped apart
Intro: Gbm7 D
                                                                         When you refused to fight
[Primeira Parte]
                                                                   [Refrão]
Bury all your secrets in my skin
                                                                   So save your breath, I will not hear
Come away with innocence
                                                                  I think I made it very clear
And leave me with my sins
                                                                   You couldn't hate enough to love
    Gbm7
The air around me still feels like a cage
                                                                   Is that supposed to be enough?
     Gbm7
And love is just a camouflage
                                                                  I only wish you weren't my friend
For what resembles rage again
                                                                   Then I could hurt you in the end
( Gbm7 D )
                                                                   I never claimed to be a Saint
[Refrão]
                                                                  Uh, my own was banished long ago
So if you love me, let me go
                                                                   It took the death of hope to let you go
                    D7M#
And run away before I know
                                                                                               Ε
My heart is just too dark to care
                                                                   So break yourself against my stones
I can't destroy what isn't
                                                                  And spit your pity in my soul
                                       there
Deliver me into my Fate
                                                                  You never needed any help
                                                                  You sold me out to save yourself
If I'm alone I cannot hate
                                                                  And I won't listen to your shame
I don't deserve to have you
        D
                                                                   You ran away - You're all the same
Uh, my smile was taken long ago
If I can change I hope I never know
                                                                                  Е
                                                                  Angels lie to keep control
( Gbm7 D )
                                                                           D
                                                                  Uh, my love was punished long ago
[Primeira Parte]
                                                                   If you still care, don't ever let me know
                                                                   ( Gbm7 D )
I still press your letters to my lips
                                                                   If you still care, don't ever let me know
And cherish them in parts of me
                                                                   ( Gbm7 D )
     D
That savor every kiss
                                                                   ( Gbm7 )
