```

A Listen close, and don't be stoned B
 I'll be here in the morning A
 'Cause I'm just floating B
 A Your cigarette still burns B
 Your messed-up world will thrill me A
 B Alison, I'm lost
 E Alison, I said we're sinking A
 E There's nothing here but that's okay A
 E

Outside your room, your sister's spinning
 But she laughs and tells me she's just fine D A
 B I guess she's out there somewhere A E
 A And the sailors they strike poses B
 TV covered walls, and so slowly A B
 A With your talking and your pills B
 Your messed-up life still thrills me A
 B Alison, I'm lost
 E Alison, I'll drink your wine A
 E I wear your clothes, when we're both high A
 E Alison, I said we're sinking A
 But she laughs and tells me it's just fine D A
 B I guess she's out there somewhere A E A E
