 My daydream seems as one inside of you
 Db                      B    Am                      Gb    Ab                      Am
 Though it seems hard to reach through this life

Your blue and hopeless life
 My daydream screams bitter 'til the end
 The love I share -true- selfish to the heart
 My heart, my sacred heart
 My daydream dream
 My daydream
 My daydream dream
 My daydream
