The winters mark the earth

It's floored with frozen glass

They slip into my arms

And you quickly caress yourself

You freeze and speech 'bove us

Seem to hold your words aloft

I want the smoky of the clouds of laughter

To swim above me forevermore

Refrão:

I will race you to the water side

And from the edge of Ireland shout out

So they could hear it in America

It's all for you

The shells crack under our shoes

Like punctuation points

The planets bend between us

A hundred million suns and stars

In seafull then the silence

Before you said those words

And I'll even end the dark place

I could see how good you are

Refrão:

I will race you to the water side

And from the edge of Ireland shout out

So they could hear it in America

It's all for you

It's all for you

It's all for you

It's all for you

It's all for you

It's all for you

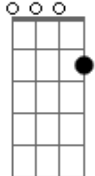

It's all for you

It's all for you
