

S.O.J.A. (Soldiers of Jah Army) - Open My Eyes

Tom: G

Riff principal:

Em C G D

I open my eyes each morning I rise, to find the truth I know that is there

Em C G D

I'm lucky to breathe, I'm lucky to feel, I'm glad to wake up, I'm glad to be

Em C G D

here, with all of this world, and all of it's pain, all of it's lies, and all of it's flipped down, I still

Em C G D

Em C G D

feel a sense of freedom , so glad I'm around

It's my freedom , can't take it from me, I know it, it won't change, but we need some understanding, I know we'll be all right.

The day I am gone, and the day that I leave, I'll never regret one minute of life,

I've learned from the joy, i've learned from the tears,
I've fought through the dark, now I see the light,
every tounge of everyone, in every state, of every land, has everything to be thankful for

It's my freedom , can't take it from me, I know it, it won't change, but we need some understanding, I know it be all right,

It's my freedom , can't take it from me, i know it, it won't change, but we need some understanding.

Cause I, I wait on you, cause you wait on me, so I wait on you.

I open my eyes each morning I rise to find the truth I know that is there, I can't tell you how, you can't tell me why, but livin' my life, is all I care, the burden can be sometimes bigger than me, sometimes stronger than me, and hard to bare, but I couldn't careless,no stress cause Jah put me here.
