

S.O.J.A. (Soldiers of Jah Army) - Wait

Tom: F
Intro: Bb F Am7 Dm C

Bb F
You know I never said goodbye to you
Am7 Dm C
I just shut up and walked away
Bb F
You know I'm running from what's hard to do and
Am7 Dm C
I'm letting you know that nothing's changed
Bb F
I'm think I'll never change the road I'm on
Am7 Dm C
Bb
All I'm changing up is the town that I'm in and sometimes
F Am7 Dm C
I'm not into who I've become, and that "Sometime" in now, oh.

Bb F
Wait... Wait...
Am7 Dm
Dont let it go like it's gone before
C Bb F
And please stay... Stay
Am7 Dm C
Don't make me show up at your door.

I'm feeling I'm drowning and loving every minute in it
Like I'm tripping every second that I'm in the minute baby,
Were stupid we kill each other for love, love

Running in circles, we can never get enough us
You hear me calling and you start to turn around
You see me running and you start to slow down
Baby, slow down turn around
And wait for me to talk away again, now.

Oh Wait, come on, wait
Don't let it go like it's gone before
And please please stay with me, stay
Don't make me show up, show up at your door.

I never said never said goodbye to you
I shut up and walked all away
I'm running from what's hard to do and
Letting you know that nothing's changed, nothing ever changed.
I'm think I'll never change the road I'm on
All I'm changing up is the town that I'm in and sometimes
I'm not into who I've become, and that "Sometime" in now...
But, oh.

Oh Wait, come on, wait
Don't let it go like it's gone before
And please please stay with me, stay
Don't make me show up, show up at your door.

Wait you know I never said goodbye to you
Don't let it go like it's gone before
Please please stay
You know I'm running from what's hard to do
Please don't make me show up at your door.
