I'm Just now waking up
G
to what life is facing us
C
and to what we've all become
D Em
I'm Just now waking up
G
Some people call your name
C
but it's not the same
G
I'm just now waking up
G
I'm Just now waking up
G
to what life is facing us
C
and to what we've all become
D Em
I'm Just now waking up
G
Some people call your name
C

G D Em
I'm just now waking up
Em D
We think we know good
C
we think we know the bad
G
we think we know just what
D Em
this world is spinning for
Em D
We think we move up
C
while we're stepping back
G
Increasing till this world
D Em
it just can't take no more
Em D
And I've got myself to blame, my
C G D Em
acid rain is my tears
Em D
My church is blue and green, from C G
space, I mean, its clear
G
I'm Just now waking up
G
to what life is facing us
C
and to what we've all become
D Em
I'm Just now waking up
G
Some people call your name
C
but it's not the same
G D Em
I'm just now waking up
Em D
We're supposed to watch over
C

this world, cuz we're the ones
G D Em
all the tools and all the scars
Em D
But all we do is increase the
C load, cuz we're the ones with
G D Em
all the guns and all the cars
Em D
And we've got our shoes to fill, and
C G D Em
we want until we drop
Em D Cuz this race can't be
C endured if we don't
G
know where to stop
G
I'm Just now waking up
G
to what life is facing us
C G
and to what we've all become
D Em
I'm Just now waking up
G
Some people call your name
C
but it's not the same
G D Em
I'm just now waking up

Solo:

Em D We're visiting here, we're just
C G D Em
passing here, can't settle down
Em D we're like the wind here, yeah we C G D Em
blow in here and we blow out
Em D
But I've got myself to blame
C G D Em
and I won't be here for too long
Em D
But I'll leave my footprints here
C G
before we're all gone
G
I'm Just now waking up
G
to what life is facing us
C G
and to what we've all become
D Em
I'm Just now waking up
G
Some people call your name
C
but it's not the same
G D Em
I'm just now waking up
