Intro: D Dm D Dm

Mama's put your babies to sleep
Story too cruel for them this is
In Junior high she said goodbye
To her parents and ran away with a boy
She left her family warm and kind
All of her friends said "you're out of your mind"
Life of her own she would find
It's Monday and she's gotta grind
A job as a waitress she sure was to find
Beautiful face, mind of a child
Boy got her pregnant
Mary-Lou cried, "For this I am too young oh why did you lie"
You said "it's okay if we do it today"
I was so scared that you would go away
"Despite all the papers been signed
Mama take me back be so kind"

Only a child, reckless and wild, needs to come home again
He promised the moon but won't marry you
Nothing to do, eating for two, he's goin' out with someone new
Sunshine or rain, it's all the same, life isn't gray oh Mary-Lou

Mama's do your children still sleep
In the safe of their cradles so sweet
Story I told you I have forseen
Your little angel ain't always so clean

Days to come aren't easy to see
You can change 'em but it isn't free
I see that you don't believe
Ooo-oo, but you will see

Only a child, reckless and wild, needs to come home again
He promised the moon but won't marry you
Nothing to do, eating for two, he's goin' out with someone new
Sunshine or rain, it's all the same, life isn't gray oh Mary-Lou
