Sons Of Maxwell - United Breaks Guitars

I heard all your excuses tom: A (forma dos acordes no tom de ${\tt G}$) Capostraste na 2ª casa And I've chased your wild gooses And I say this attitude of yours must go С I flew United Airlines on my way to Nebraska United F (United) The plane departed, Halifax, connecting in Chicago's "O'Hare" You broke my Taylor Guitar United G While on the ground, a passenger said from the seat behind me (United) Some big help you are "My God, they're throwing guitars out there" You broke it, you should fix it You're liable, just admit it The band and I exchanged a look, best described as terror At the action on the tarmat, and knowing whose projectiles Or gone by car these would be So before I left Chicago, I alerted three employees Who showed complete indifference towards me 'Cause United breaks guitars Well, I won't say that I'll never fly with you again United (United 'Cause, maybe, to save the world, I probably would But that won't likely happen C You broke my Taylor Guitar F United And if it did, I wouldn't bring my luggage 'Cause you'd just go and break it (United) С Some big help you are Into a thousand pieces F Just like you broke my heart You broke it, you should fix it G C When United breaks guitars You're liable, just admit it United F CG (United) Or gone by car You broke my Taylor Guitar Dm С United F 'Cause United breaks guitars (United) Some big help you are When we landed in Nebraska, I confirmed what I'd suspected My Taylor'd been the victim of a vicious act of malice at You broke it, you should fix it 0'Hare You're liable, just admit it So began a year long sagan, of "pass the buck", "don't ask Or gone by car

'Cause United breaks guitars

Yeah, United breaks guitars

Yeah, United breaks guitars

me", and "I'm sorry sir, your claim can go no where" So to all the airlines people, from New York to New Deli Including kind Ms. Irlweg, who says the final word from them is "no"

Acordes

