

Sons Of The East - It Must Be Luck

tom:
Capostrate na 8ª casa
Intro: G C Am7

[Verso]

G C Am7
Ten minutes more, I'd have never seen
G C Am7
A face with the eyes from a magazine
G C Am7 G C Am7
You'd already gone but I came back to find you

G C Am7
Everything can change in a moment
G C Am7
I was on a road going nowhere
G C Am7
Maybe we were crazy or just drunk
G C Am7
But you filled the air into my lungs
C
Into my lungs

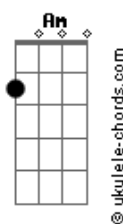

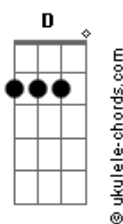

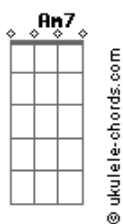

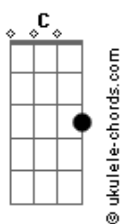

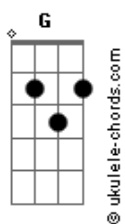

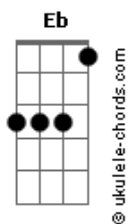

[Refrão]

G D C
I don't believe in fate so it must be luck
G D C
Guess I must be having some kind of run
G D C G D C
Will I make a fortune or is love enough?

[Verso]

G C Am7
Busy making plans for some other day
G C Am7
Finding it hard to keep the story straight
G C Am7
But in the morning, we watched the sun arrive
G C Am7
And you stole a corner of my mind
C

Acordes

Of my mind

[Refrão]

G D C
Well I don't believe in fate so it must be luck
G D C
Guess I must be having some kind of run
G D C G D C
Will I make a fortune or is love enough?

[Ponte]

Am C
We ain't got it all worked out
G D
Still catching up somehow, to everyone
Am C
Does anybody understand
G D
Never knowing what you have until it's gone
