

Sophie Woodhouse - Coquette Habit

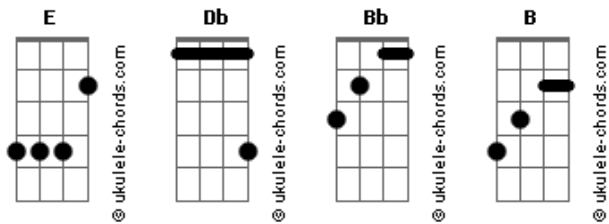

tom:

E

I'm your coquette, don't you forget
 I'm your coquette, don't you forget
 I'm your coquette, don't you forget
 I'm your coquette, don't you forget

Out there on the streets
 I see them look at me
 Her skirt is way too short

Acordes

But I know they want more

Reality is lame

I'd rather play my game
 Put bows on everything

Always the color pink

I'm your coquette, don't you forget
 I'm your coquette, don't you forget
 I'm your coquette, don't you forget
 I'm your coquette, don't you forget
