"HE DIDN'T"
Music: M. Cameron
Lyrics: C. Cornell

This is my favorite song off of Ultramega OK except for
"Incessant Mace"
and "Beyond the Wheel"
The other tab I saw has all the notes there but they are played wrong. .
. well thats what I think.
Intro: all harmonics

6/4

Main Guitar Part

3/4

4/4

Verse Part: with palm muting

He did nothing perfectly
He did nothing quite well
He did nothing perfectly
Much better than anyone I've ever seen

3/4

4/4

I dont know what the hell the interlude is.
But that part sucks anyway.
During the verse and main guitar part the bass plays the same thing. It
doesnt play at all in the intro and I don't know what it plays during the interlude thing.

2nd Verse:
He did nothing all the time
He did nothing constantly
He did nothing everyday
More often than anyone I've ever seen

3rd Verse:
He failed, and he failed miserably
He failed, and he failed quite bad
He failed, and he failed miserably
What's better he never even had to try
