                tom:
                A
        [Verse 1]
A                                   D
? There's something about ya, I cannot explain
      A                                  D
I'm a natural disaster, but you don't mind the rain
      A                                       D
If I let you in, I doubt you would feel the same
A                                 D
'Cause until now, never had the guts to say
                    A
You make my blood run warm

[Chorus]
B               D
Like nothing I felt before
                    A
You make my blood run warm
              D
(Don't know what I'm waiting for)

[Verse 2]
A                                              D
? When my world was burning, you walked through the flames
(Never gonna let you go, never gonna leave your side)
      A                                 D
And said to me that everything's okay
(Never gonna let you go, never gonna leave your side)
A                                       D
I should run and hide, I don't wanna make you wait (You said)
A                                   D
"You're stuck with me, I don't care how long this takes"
