Intro: C Em F Em

[Primeira Parte]

Well I kicked and I screamed from Zero to four
And I still don't know what for
Maybe gored from matador
Or dreaming on the rails of angels
Dead drunk in the snow
And a train that never blowed, took
My legs and I bled out slow

Evening, Evening Star Supercharger
Even, though she's dying getting
Larger

Peace without pill, gun or needle or
Prayer appear
Never found sometimes near but too
Fleet to be clear
Never roam, never flown raked the
Tracks of my fears
And the grinding metal gears from a

Acordes

Em G
Carnival of tears

Evening, Evening Star Supercharger
Even, though she's dying getting
Larger

To the sea, to the roan, to the
Cloud yet unflown
To the tone, to the stone, to the
Seed yet ungrown
A flag unblown
