

Speak Low If You Speak Love - Tiny Furnace

Tom: F

(com acordes na forma de C)

Capostrate na 5ª casa

Intro: C Am

That dress you wore
The day we went over the train tracks
I want that day back
You said God wasn't in the sky
And there was nothing I could do or say to change your mind

But I didn't want to, change it
But I didn't want to, change it
But I didn't want to, change it
But I didn't want to, change it

Because you're a tiny furnace, and I'm the coal you're burning
Can't you see I can't douse the flames? Things will never be the same
Because you're a tiny furnace, and I'm the coal you're burning
Can't you see I can't douse the flames? Well two can play at that game

Your blonde hair on the bed, was the same one your mother caught me in Those stars stuck to your ceiling seemed so out of reach
And I let them keep me up, while you were fast asleep

And I know I panicked, and I'm sorry
And I know I panicked, and I'm sorry

And I know I panicked, and I'm sorry
And I know I panicked, and I'm sorry

Because you're a tiny furnace, and I'm the coal you're burning
Can't you see I can't douse the flames? Things will never be the same
Because you're a tiny furnace, and I'm the coal you're burning
Can't you see I can't douse the flames? Well two can play at that game

And I got scared, that you were too much, that you were too much

And I got scared, that I wasn't enough, I wasn't enough
And I pretended, that you didn't exist you didn't exist

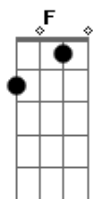

And that's something that, I never would wish, never would wish on anyone
Else

(Am Em C)

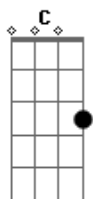

Because you're a tiny furnace
And I'm the coal you're burning
Because you're a tiny furnace
And I'm the coal you're burning

[Final] Am Em C
