

Spiritual Front - Tenderness Through Violence

tom:

Em

How does your blood taste? Em

Where are your wounds? Em

I am paying for a guilt which isn't mine G C

I am preparing to live another lie G A

Now I am part of it, I want to be part of it

Why am I trying to grow inside of you? Em

Hug me tight and let me praise your name G C

An obsession keeps me tied to your flesh G A

Keeps me tied to your sex

I ?m a fall back in which you deceive to see love Em

Could you still appreciate me? G

But how much can. You love? C G A

How much are you willing to give of yourself?

Persuasion, slander, faith, resistance

Em G Bm

Punish me now punish me here

Tenderness through violence Em G Bm

Punish me now merciless D Em

There?s no place for men like us

Em G Bm

Punish me now punish me here

Tenderness through violence Em G Bm

Punish me now blameless D Em

There?s no place for men like us

Em G Bm

Punish me now punish me here

Tenderness through violence Em G Bm

Punish me now blameless D Em

There?s no place for men like us ( Em G A )

Em

Could you spell his holy name again

Could you smell the taste of her sex strain? G C

Do the obliged choices count? G A

Look at me and try to understand

Em

Beyond this reason

Beyond this smell

Happiness exist if you know G C

How to remove it from your head G A

Do you still believe in your promises

In your conscience

Rage and remorse existence Em G Bm

Punish me now punish me here

Tenderness through violence Em G Bm

Punish me now merciless D Em

There?s no place for men like us

Em G Bm

Punish me now punish me here

Tenderness through violence Em G Bm

Punish me now blameless D Em

There?s no place for men like us ( G Bm )

Em G Bm

Forgive me but make me bleed D Em G Bm

Forgive me but make me bleed D Em

Forgive me but make me bleed
