[Segunda Parte]

Well, you got the weight of the world comin' down like a mother's Eye And all that you can, all that you can give is a cold goodbye The law enforcement's impressed you survived to this age, Strapped up soldiers, they'll lock you in a cage Without goodbye for a nickel bribe

[Refrão]

And aww no, where are you tonight, ugh How'd we get here, it's too late to break it off I need a release, the signals have called But that don't get me off I summon you here my Love

Love uh huh ooh, uh huh

Got the weight of the world, I summon you here my Love
