

Star-Lord Band - Ghost (Feat. Steve Szczepkowski & Yohann Boudreault)

tom:
A

I watch the fire dance
It whispers your name
We surrendered to the chance
That we were both the same

We tried to reach the Sun
But we flew too high
We never became one
Never wondered why

I hear your voice & it's calling out my name
While the candle burns and steals away the flame
Your love was cold and dark just lik? the grave
And still it goes on and on and on and on and on

Lik? a ghost living in my head
The things you did all the things you said
Wasn't love but something black instead
Like you, Like you, it's all dead to me now

The black & moonless nights
Remind me of you
It holds me close
Like you used to do

Your serpent's kiss

Was something that I craved
I tried to resist but
Was willingly enslaved

I hear your voice & it's calling out my name
While the candle burns and steals away the flame
Your love was cold and dark just like the grave
And still it goes on and on and on and on and on

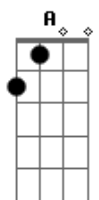

Like a ghost living in my head
The things you did all the things you said
Wasn't love but something black instead
Like you, Like you, it's all dead to me now

I hear your voice & it's calling out my name
While the candle burns and steals away the flame
Your love was cold and dark just like the grave
And still it goes on and on and on and on and on

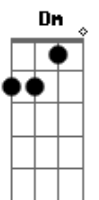

Like a ghost living in my head
The things you did all the things you said
Wasn't love but something black instead
Like you, it's all dead to me now

Like a ghost living in my head
The things you did all the things you said
Wasn't love but something black instead
Like you, it's all dead to me now
