[Verse 1]

To fall in love isn't easy when you're afraid of heights
But, I can't help but fall when look into your eyes

So blue, I love the hue
But, more than that I do you love you and-
Every night I'm in bed I fight to keep you from my mind
And almost every day that's how I spend most of my time

It's true, there is no use
I can't escape the thought of you

So-

[Chorus]

Would you trust me to catch you at the bottom of the pool?
If I told you my whole heart, that I loved you that
I loved you that, I loved you
But I'm afraid, I'm scared, of those romantic words, you see?
Ain't ironic how those are just the songs I sing about

My lovely, do you really love me?
When I hear you whisper under your breath

[Interlude]

C C7M F G G7

[Verse 2]

I lost you when I lost me, didn't mean to at the time
All the hurt I was feeling in my heart it made me blind
To you, what you'd been through, I paid no mind

Though I meant to and-

All the fire I felt within my bones became eclipsed
Just the touch of your hands, you're heart and oh my God, your lips

Oh, I just wish that
I just wish that you would

[Chorus]

Would you trust me to catch you at the bottom of the pool?
If I told you my whole heart, that I loved you that
I loved you that, I loved you
But I'm afraid, I'm scared, of those romantic words, you see?
Ain't ironic how those are just the songs I sing about
My lovely, do you really love me?

When I hear you whisper under your breath-

[Bridge]

I love you
I love you
I love you, you, you
Oh it's true, oh

("Oohs" with the same progression) - C C7M F G G7

[Chorus]

Would you trust me to catch you at the bottom of the pool?
If I told you my whole heart, that I loved you that
I loved you that, I loved you
But I'm afraid, I'm scared, of those romantic words, you see?
Ain't ironic how those are just the songs I sing about

My lovely, do you really love me?
When I hear you whisper under your breath-
