

Steppenwolf - Snowblind Friend

Tom: A

A You say...this morning...last saw...good friend
A Lying on...his brain
A Stoned on...new potion...he found...the wall
A Of some...some ungodly hall
D He only...a dollar...to live...next Monday
A He spent...for his mind
D Did you say...he's blind?

The second verse is the same

B The end of that verse flying low and dyin' slow is just the repeated (D) to (A)

After the solo, the song changes key up to (B) for the last verse so the progression is:

B E B Db
B Db
B E B Db
B Gb E
E B Db Gb
B Db
E B
 then the last words are, again just repeated (E) (B)
