

Steven Universo - Let's Only Think About Love

Tom: D

m
 Mom was a Diamond who invaded Earth
 Saw it's beauty and it's worth
 Mom made an army and she fought herself
 Did that even end up mattering
 When she faked her own shattering?
 Mom lived in hiding by the name of Rose
 With the friends she'd made and the form she chose
 Now all that's left of her exists in me
 And I think that we can all agree
 That is a little bit upsetting
 I'd rather think about a wedding!

Let's think about cake
 Let's think about flowers
 Let's think about dressing up
 And dancing around for hours
 There's an awful lot of awful things
 We could be thinking of
 But for just one day
 Let's only think about love!

We could think about lies
 That we told in the past
 We could think about hurt feelings
 And how long they can last
 Or we could think about hope
 You know I've been hoping
 That everything's better now
 Everything's now in the open

We could think about flowers
 We could think about cake
 We could think about wonderful promises
 We have the power to make
 There's an awful lot of awful things
 We could be thinking of

But for just one day
 Let's only think about love!
 We could all rethink
 How we feel about Rose
 When it comes to Pink
 And the things that she did in the past, I suppose
 Or we could both feel better
 ?Cause we could think about how
 We could think about us
 And we could think about now
 Hmm but for just one day let's only think about

We could think about war
 We could think about fighting
 We could think about long lost friends
 We wish we were inviting
 We could think about the broken gems
 In The Cluster in the planet's core
 Or we could think about the bubble we made
 So that they can't be hurt any-
 They can't be hurt anymore

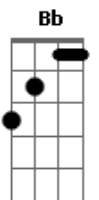

We could think about joy
 We could think about pain
 We could think about sunshine
 We could think about rain
 There's an awful lot of awful things
 We could be thinking of
 But for just one day
 Let's only think about

Just one day let's
 Only think about
 Just one day let's
 Only think about
 Love!
