Steven Wilson - Routine

Tom: D

    Gbm        D       Gbm            D
    What do I do with all the children's clothes
C           Em          Em            D
 such tiny things that still smell of them
Gbm        D          Gbm       D
    And the footprints in the hallway
C         Em     Em          D
onto my knees scrub them away

( Gbm  D  Gbm  D )
( C   Em  D )

Gbm              D         Gbm            D
    And how to be of use make the tea and the soup
C           Em          Em            D
All of their favorites throw them away
Gbm          D          Gbm        D
    And all their schoolbooks and the running shoes
C          Em          Em          D
Washing and cleaning the dirty still sink

( Gbm  D  Gbm  D )
( C   Em  D )

Gbm        E            D
Routine keeps me in line
Gbm        E         D
Helps me pass the time
Dbm      B          A
Concentrate my mind
F        G      A
Helps me to sleep

Gbm          D          Gbm            D
    And keep making beds and keep the cat fed
C           Em     Em          D
Open the windows let the air in
Gbm          D          Gbm        D
    And keep the house clean and keep the routine
C             Em         Em          D
Paintings they make still stuck to the fridge

Gbm          D       Gbm            D
    La-la   la-da      la-la      la-da
C         Em   Em    D
Da-da-da    la-la-da-da

( Dbm  D  Bm  Gbm  Dbm  A  E )

Helps me pass the time
Dbm      B          A
(Concentrate my mind)
F        G      A
Helps me to sleep

( Gb  E  Gb  E  G  C )
( Em  A  D2  D )

Em                       A       D2         D
   The most beautiful morning forever
Em                       A         D2         D
   Like the ones from far off, far off away
Em                       A          D2            D
   With the hum of the bees in the jasmine sway

           Em              A
Don't ever let go
           D2            D
Try to let go
           Em              A
Don't ever let go
           D2            D
Try to let go
Em  A  D2  D
Don't ever
