                                                            But I will celebrate,
La la la la, la la lala, la.
           C
                      Bb7 Am
                                                            Our love of yester-day.
La la la la, la la lala la,
Gm Bb75 F
                                                            Chorus 2:
La la la la, la la lala, la.
                                                            So long a-go,
Verse 1:
                                                             F7
                                                            My heart without de-manding;
 F C
For you;
                                                            In-formed me that,
There might be another star.
                                                            No other love could do.
             Gm

But through my eyes,
                                                            But listen did I not,
            Bb75
                                                                      C A7
The light of you, is all I see.
                                                            Though under-standing,
                                                                            Dm
                                                            Fell in love with one,
Verse 2:
                                                                   E7
 F C
                                                            Who would break my heart in two.
For you;
                     Bb7 Am
                                                            Verse 5:
There might be another song.
                                                               F C
 Gm
But all my heart can hear,
                                                            For you;
 Bb75 F
Is your melo-dy.
                                                            There might be another star.
                                                                         Gm
Chorus 1:
                                                            But through my eyes,
                                                                        Bb75
                                                            The light of you, is all I see.

So long a-go,

                                                            Verse 6:
My heart without de-manding;
                                                             F C
                                                            For you;
In-formed me that,
                                                                                 Bb7 Am

                                                            There might be another song.
No other love could do.
                                                              Gm
But listen did I not,
                                                            But all my heart can hear,
       C A7
                                                             Bb75 F
Though under-standing,
                                                            Is your melo-dy.
Fell in love with one,

Who would break my heart in two.
                                                            La la la la, la la lala la,
Verse 3:

                                                             La la la la, la la lala, la.
 F C
For you;
                                                            La la la la, la la lala la,
                          Bb7 Am
                                                                      Bb75
Love might bring a toast of wine.
                                                             La la la la, la la lala, la.
         Gm
But which each sparkle,
        Bb75
                                                            (Repeat to Fade)
