                                                                        Know through all your joy and pain
Verso 1:
                                                                        That I'll be loving you always

        As around the sun the earth knows she's revolving
                                                                        As today I know I'm living but tomorrow
        And the rosebuds know to bloom in early May
                                                                        Could make me that past but that I mustn't fear
                                                                        For I'll know deep in my mind
                                   B7
        Just as hate knows love's the cure
                                                                        The love of me I've left behind
                                                                        'Cause I'll be loving you always

Verso 2:
                                                                        Until the trees and sea just up and fly away

        As now can't reveal the mystery of tomorrow
