

Stevie Wonder - Superstition

As you can see below, you have to tune down half a step (Eb,Ab,Db,Gb) to get it to sound just right, but you can play it with standard tuning (E,A,D,G) as long as the rest of the band is in the right key! (duh!) This is the way I play it, it's not necessarily the way Stevie plays it live. Stevie has a keyboard player doing the melody, so if your in a band with no keyboard player the bassist and the guitarist should play it. I've seen this tabbed on other sites and it is WRONG! This is the CORRECT way how to play it!
