

Sticky Fingers - Yours To Keep

Tom: G

[Verso 1]

The last time you held me, I was drunk, I was off my face
 Wanted to give you a piece of the sky for your embrace
 'Cause I don't ever wanna be yours to keep, I'm such a waste
 It's nice to know you're there but I'm headed south of westway

[Verso 2]

Born together, she cut the cake
 I drowned her liver, and kissed her drain
 A spinnin' cycle, she's got no brakes
 Her trigger spoke loose, this broken chain
 I don't ever wanna be yours to keep, I'm such a waste
 It's nice to know you're there but I'm headed south of westway

[Pré-Refrão]

I'm still awake for another Tuesday
 Don't fall asleep, grab a hold and cut you free

[Refrão]

She found lovin' in the wrong kind of place, yeah
 She said she needed shelter but I don't have the space
 And it's all covered in molly, yeah, I made a mistake
 Yeah, I let you down
 She fell over onto some kind of state, yeah
 We fell through the clouds, it was a devilish fate
 And it's all covered in powder, yeah, I made a mistake
 Yeah, the sun goes down

[Ponte]

Yeah, if you want it then come and fight for it
 Yeah, if you want it then come and fight for it
 (Yeah, if you want it then come and fight for it)

(B)

This is an unsent letter
 I know that I won't forget her

This is an unsent letter
 I know that I won't forget her

'Cause I don't ever wanna be yours to keep, I'm such a waste
