

Still Feel - Half Alive

tom:
                        Am7
When I'm furthest from myself (far away)
Feeling closer to the stars (outer space)
I've been invaded by the dark (can't escape)
Trying to recognize myself when I feel I've been replaced
      Am7
When I'm furthest from myself (far away)
Feeling closer to the stars (outer space)
      Am7
                 G
I've been invaded by the dark (can't escape)
Trying to recognize myself when I feel I've been replaced
Oh-oh-oh-oh
I can feel a kick down in my soul
And it's pulling me back to earth to let me know
I am not a slave, can't be contained
 C Dm Fm
                                Em7
So pick me from the dark and pull me from the grave
'Cause
I still feel alive
                      C Em7
When it is hopeless, I start to notice
And I still feel alive
     Dm
Falling forward, back into orbit
So, when I lose my gravity in this sleepy womb
Drifting as I dream, but I'll wake up soon
To realize the hand of life is reaching out
To rid me of my pride, I call allegiance to myself
Oh-oh-oh-oh
 E7
But I can feel a kick down in my soul
And it's pulling me back to earth to let me know
I am not a slave, can't be contained
      C Dm
                 Fm
                                Em7
So pick me from the dark and pull me from the grave
'Cause
