

Sting - Until

tom:

Intro: Em Gb7 Bm

Bm Bm G7M
If I caught the world in a bottle
Em Gb Bm Bm G7M
And everything was still beneath the moon
Em Gb Em Gb
Without your love would it shine for me?

Bm Bm G7M
If I was smart as Aristotle
Em Gb Bm Bm G7M
And understood the rings around the moon
Em Gb Em Gb7
What would it all matter if you loved me?

Em
In your arms
A D7M
The where the world is impossibly still
Bm G7M
With a million dreams to fulfill
Em Gb7
And a matter of moments until
Em Gb7
The dancing ends

Em
Here in your arms
A D7M
When everything seems to be clear
Bm G7M
Not a solit'ry thing would I fear
Em Gb7
Except when this moment comes near
Em Gb7
The dancing's end

Bm Bm G7M
If I caught the world in an hourglass
Em Gb Bm Bm G7M
Saddel up the moon so we could ride
Em Bm Bm G7M Em
Until the stars grew dim, until

Cm Eb G#7M
One day, you'll meet a stranger
Fm G Cm Eb G#7M
And all the noise is silenced in the room
Fm G Fm G
You'll feel that you're close to some mystery

Cm Eb G#7M
In the moonlight, when everything shadows
Fm G Cm Eb G#7M
You feel as if you've known her all your life
Fm G Fm G
The world's oldest lesson in history
