                                                                 Feels like home, sitting all alone inside your head
I'm looking at you through the glass...
                                                                 Cause I'm looking at you through the glass...
Don't know how much time has passed
                                                                 Don't know how much time has passed
Oh god it feels like forever
                                                                 All i know is that it feels like forever
But no one ever tells you that forever
                                                                 When no one ever tells you that forever
Feels like home, sitting all alone inside your head
                                                                 Feels like home, sitting all alone inside your head

                                                                              C
How do you feel? That is the question
                                                                 And its the starrrssss
But i forget.. you dont expect and easy answer
                                                                 The sttarrrsss
When something like a soul becomes
Initialized and folded up like paper dolls and little notes
                                                                 And its the starrrssss
You cant expect to bitter folks
                                                                 The sttarrrsss
And while your outside looking in
                                                                 That lie to you.. yeah-ah
Describing what you see
                                                                 Refrão 4:
Remember what you're staring at is me
                                                                 I'm looking at you through the glass...

                                                                 Oh god it feels like forever
                                                                 But no one ever tells you that forever
Don't know how much time has passed
All i know is that it feels like forever
                                                                 Feels like home, sitting all alone inside your head
When no one ever tells you that forever
                                                                 Cause I'm looking at you through the glass...
Feels like home, sitting all alone inside your head
                                                                 Don't know how much time has passed
                                                                 All i know is that it feels like forever \begin{tabular}{ll} Em \end{tabular}
How much is real? So much to question
                                                                 When no one ever tells you that forever
And never dare make up the mannequins
                                                                 Feels like home, sitting all alone inside your head
Contaminating everything
When thought came from the heart
                                                                 And its the starrrssss
It never did right from the start
                                                                 The sttarrrsss
 Just listen to the noises
                                                                 That shine for you
(No more sad voices)
                                                                 And its the starrrssss
 Before you tell yourself
                                                                 The sttarrrsss
Its just a different scene
                                                                 That lie to you.. yeah-ah (2x)
Remember its just different from what you've seen
                                                                 Passagem: (C D Em Em D)
