Another great song from their second album.
I've seen many people play this song using nothing but power same again

    they got these pictures of everything Fine place for a day full of breakdowns takes more than a meltdown to show us how to break us down
                         yeah to break me down Throw a tak on the road start the meatplow

Use the verse riff and do tremolo picking on this note during the whole
                                                                          Thats it. It's a simple song to play. All corrections
