

Suki Waterhouse - Model, Actress, Whatever

tom:
C

(X2) (X2)

I saw a star, falling from grace
And I'd play pretend, hoping one day
I'd be the girl, with that twisted fate
And I'd have a story, they'd know my name

Ran off, grew up, cut my knees up
My delusions followed me, haunted me, honestly

All of my dreams came true
The bigger the ocean, the deeper the blue
Call me a model, an actress, whatever
Other half of my baby, we stay together
All of the years in my eyes
Fighting off lows, breathing in highs
Call me a lover, disaster, whatever
Other half of my story is with me forever

Careful what you ask, love for the ages
When it's good all on the outside, part of the faking
You can't write the ending, it's Hollywood pages
You tell them your story and they'll make the changes

That's what comes down
G
Scream my lungs out
Dm
Nightmares so loud
Am
They follow me, haunting me, honestly

All of my dreams came true
The bigger the ocean, the deeper the blue
Call me a model, an actress, whatever
Other half of my baby, we stay together
All of the years in my eyes
Fighting off lows, breathing in highs
Call me a lover, disaster, whatever
Other half of my story is with me forever

The tables have turned
The lessons I've learned
This love is a curse
Call me a model, an actress, forever
Fuck what you've heard
About me at my worst
The bridges I've burned
Call me a model, an actress, whatever
Call me a model, an actress, forever
