Sun Diamond - Let Me Drunk (And R.I.P)

Tom: G

```
   G               Am                          Em
Blues and Jack bring peace to ego
G         Am                                  Em
Flying higher with wings like an eagle
G               Am                Em
You know everyone has nightmares
G               Am        F
And they're wishing that

          Em           D                              G  Am  G
Am
In the end everything will work out
        Em                D                          G Am  G Am
Your ideas are impossible now
       Bbm
So let me drunk and rest in peace
F                           Em
Because I?ve got it with only one chance

Em
D
When the time passed on I felt it, I fell on the ground
Em
C
And the city is all trashed when I looked back around
Em
And the people that we knew, they are not the same
Em
So don't talk to me as a friend!

G
I am not insane but,
Bbm
You will freak me out bitch,
G
I am not insane baby,
Bbm                         F
Stop draining my soul
YEAH!!!

          Em           D                              G  Am  G
In the end everything will work out
        Em                D                          G Am  G Am
Your ideas are impossible now
       Bbm
So let me drunk and rest in peace
F                           Em
Because I?ve got it with only one chance

          Em           D                              G  Am  G
In the end everything will work out
        Em                D                          G Am  G Am
Your ideas are impossible now
       Bbm
So let me drunk and rest in peace
F                           Em
Because I?ve got it with only one chance
Chance!
