Gm           Bb      Dm
this is a retirement
       Gm           Bb        F        C
from plumbing the veins of rats and kings
          Gm       Bb     Dm
let the stars be my eyes then
            Gm           Bb         F           C
unchain the knuckles and latches, unbutton my wrists

   Gm         Bb                Dm            C
my skin so thin you can see black holes within Gm        Bb          Dm        C
my eyes so clear they light up the sky
     Gm                Bb          Dm        C
and sometimes i?ll bend into the silicone veil
       Gm       Bb       Dm      C
and enter this world again as a ghost
