

Switchfoot - Amy's Song

Tom: D
 Amy's gone
 And time rolls on
 How far? how fast? how long? (Paradinha)

The last time we saw Amy
 She was headed for the shore
 Fighting off the volatile gray skies

She said now begins forever
 And that no one knows their time
 We bid farewell not knowing
 That might be our last good-bye

Amy was a fighter
 She cut like Casius Clay
 She burned like a fire
 Despite these rains

Where time was a question
 She only knew one song:
 She's singing, "how far, how fast, how long?"

Salvation is a fire
 In the midnight of the soul
 It lights up like a can of gasoline

Yeah, she's a freedom fighter
 She's a stand up kind of girl
 She's out to start a fire
 In a bar code plastic world

Amy was a fighter

She cut like Casius Clay
 She burned like a fire
 Despite these rains

Where time was a question
 She only knew one song:
 She's singing, "how far, how fast, how long?"

When everything stops moving
 And I stop to catch my breath
 And ride my train of thought
 All the way round

My thoughts return to Amy
 And the fire she's begun
 She came when we were freezing
 And left us burning up

Amy was a fighter
 She cut like Casius Clay
 She burned like a fire
 Despite these rains

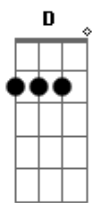

Where time was a question
 She only knew one song:
 She's singing, "how far, how fast, how long?"

how long, how long, how long (Dedilhando)
