```
QUkecifras
```

Syd Barrett - Baby Lemonade

Tom: D Cold iron hands clap NOTES: D The party of clowns outside terminology: x/y slide from x up to y hammer on to x hx pull off to x D рх Rain falls in grey far away I have not attempted to indicate rhythm or timing in any way.
"|" symbols demarcate sections of music and not measures. Bb Fb Bb Ab Please, please, baby lemonade For line 4 and 5, finger like so: Verse II follows the same chord progression as verse I: ----- nth fret In the evening Sun going down when | | | | 1 | The Earth streams in in the morning | | | 2 | 3 Send a cage through the post Make your name like a ghost the third finger only frets when Please, please, baby lemonade appropriate. Verse III alters the progression slightly: Bb I'm screaming Α I met you this way You're nice to me like ice ...and so on, moving down one fret at a time until... G In the clock they sent repeat this last bar. D Through a washing machine Bb Come around, make it soon, so alone Next comes a chord progression which leads into the main part of the song, Bb Ab Bb Fb which is one bar each of: Please, please, baby lemonade Bb Db A G D Bb Eb A Then comes a guitar solo, which is played over the same chord progression that leads into the verses (Bb Db A ...). Then the verses... After this, verses I and II are repeated, and then the Verse I song closes with Bb Ab played repeatedly (in the fashion of the end of the verse) with the intro chord progression played over it, Bb In the sad town which fades out...

Acordes

