Intro: Am C D7 G

G Am
To all of you, American girls, it's sad to
G
Imagine a world without you
Am
American girls I'd like to
G
Be part of the world around you
Am
Driving a car by the seaside
Em
Watching the world from the bright side
G Am
To all of you, American girls in the movies

No one can tell where your heart is
Am
American girls like dollies
Em
With shiniest smiles and plastic bodies
Am C G
I wish I had an American girlfriend
G Am
I cry sometimes walking around my own place
Wondering why she cries sometimes
Am
Talking about her own place
G
Somewhere around the mountains
Am
No one could dry her fountain
Em
Till she got tired to complain
Am C G
That's when I fly to the wildland, to your land
