Take That - Eight Letters

Tom: Db C) (com acordes na forma de Capostraste na lª casa Intro: C F C C We became the parade on the streets that we once cleaned Expendable soldiers smiling at anything С Raised on a feeling our lives would have meaning eventually ſ We were once the answer and then you discover Youre actually just one thing after another C G And what was the question and why was the lesson so deafening? This is all that matters now C And that was all that happened anyhow You can look back but dont stare G Maybe I can love you out of there F С G And when I went away what I forgot to say F C Was all I had to say: F G C Eight letters, three words, one meaning And outside forces didnt make it easy So I thought Id go before you leave me ſ But the truth is more than we ll ever comprehend Im just starting to understand, my friend C

Acordes

All of that distance, cause I fell in love with the enemy

This is all that matters now C And that was all that happened anyhow You can look back but dont stare Maybe I can love you out of there F С And when I went away what I forgot to say F Was all I had to say: G E. C Eight letters, three words, one meaning F С And when I went away what I forgot to say F C Was all I had to say: F Eight letters, three words, one meaning Interlude C F G C G At last, we meet on no mans land G Just footprints in the sand G We meet on no mans land, at last F С F And when I went away what I forgot to say F Was all I had to say: F . C Eight letters, three words, one meaning F С F С And when I went away what I forgot to say F C Was all I had to say: G Eight letters, three words, one meaning One meaning FCFCFCFGC

Just one meaning