Take That - Said It All

Tom: D
Intro: Bm D7 D G7

```
          Bm         D7
When the tears fall away
     D             G7
And there's no conversation
          Bm             D7
There's nothing left to break
      D          G7
That's not already broken
       Bm             D7
You're staring into space
    D           G7
And every inch of silence
      Bm               D7        D   G7
Been standing here for days, and days
```

Coro:

```
        D
Said it all
                  A
Nothing to say at all
                  Bm7
Nothing to say that matters
                  G
Haven't we heard enough?

        D
Said it all
                  A
Nothing to say at all
                   Bm7
Nothing to say that matters
                   G       Bm7
Doesn't matter any more

      Bm7               D7
In the sudden light of day
```

```
     D          G7
The weight of expectation
Bm7              D7
Hurt begins to fade
       D          G7
As you find a new direction
      Bm7               D7        D      G7  G
Been talking here for days, and days, and days
```

(Coro)

D A Bm7 G

D
All of the miles of words we've spoken
A
All of the lines that got away   (2x)
Bm7   G
Didn't we take the time to say them all?

Coro:

```
         D
Said it all
                   A
Nothing to say at all
                    Bm7
Nothing to say that matters
                   G
Haven't we heard enough?

        D
Said it all
                   A
Nothing to say at all
                    Bm7
Nothing to say that matters
                   G7
Haven't we said it all?
```
