

Take That - The Flood

Tom: C

C F
Standing, on the edge of forever
Am
At the start of whatever
Em
Shouting love at the world
C F
Back then, we were like cavemen
Am
But we met the moon and the stars
Em
Then we forgave them
Dm F
We will meet you where the lights are
Am Em
The defenders, of the faith we are
Dm
Where the thunder turns around
F Am
They'll run so hard we'll tear the ground away

Dm A
You know no one dies
Dm A
In these love drowned eyes
Dm A
Through our love drowned eyes
E E
We'll watch you sleep tonight

F C
Although no one understood
Am
We were holding back the flood
Em
Learning how to dance the rain
F C
We were holding back the flood
G
They said we'd never dance again

C F
Bleeding, but none of us leaving
Am
Watch your mouth son
Em
Or you'll find yourself floating home

Dm F
Here we come now on a dark star
Am Em
Seeing demons, not what we are
Dm
Tiny minds and eager hands
F Am

Will try to strike but now will end today

Dm A
There's progress now
Dm A
Where there once was none
Dm A
Where there once was none
E E
Then everything came along

F C
Although no one understood
Am
We were holding back the flood
Em
Learning how to dance the rain
F C
There was more of them than us
G
Now they'll never dance again
F C
Although no one understood
Am
There was more of them than us
Em
Learning how to dance the rain
F C
We were holding back the flood
G
They said we'd never dance again

Dm F
We will meet you where the lights are,
Am Em
The defenders, of the faith we are
Dm
Where the thunder turns around
F Am
They'll run so hard we'll tear the ground away
(F C Am Em)
(F C G)

F C
Although no one understood
Am
There was more of them than us
Em
Learning how to dance the rain
F C
There was more of them than us
G
Now they'll never dance again

F
Now we'll never dance again
C Am Em F C G
Oh ahh, Oh ahh, Oh ahh, Oh ahh, Oh aah, Oh ahh, Oh ahh...
