

Take That - The Flood

Tom: C

^C Standing, on the edge of ^F forever
 At the start of whatever
 Shouting love at the world
^C Back then, we were like ^F cavemen
 But we met the moon and the stars
^{Em} Then we forgave them

^{Dm} We will meet you where the lights are
^{Am} The defenders, of the faith we are
^{Dm} Where the thunder turns around
^F They'll run so hard we'll tear the ground away ^{Am}

^{Dm} You know no one dies
^{Dm} In these love drowned eyes
^{Dm} Through our love drowned eyes
^E We'll watch you sleep tonight

^F Although no one understood
^{Am} We were holding back the flood
^{Em} Learning how to dance the rain
^F We were holding back the flood
^G They said we'd never dance again

^C Bleeding, but none of us leaving
^{Am} Watch your mouth son
^{Em} Or you'll find yourself floating home

^{Dm} Here we come now on a dark star
^{Am} Seeing demons, not what we are
^{Dm} Tiny minds and eager hands
^F ^{Am}

Will try to strike but now will end today

^{Dm} There's progress now
^{Dm} Where there once was none
^{Dm} Where there once was none
^E Then everything came along

^F Although no one understood
^{Am} We were holding back the flood
^{Em} Learning how to dance the rain
^F There was more of them than us
^G Now they'll never dance again
^F Although no one understood
^{Am} There was more of them than us
^{Em} Learning how to dance the rain
^F We were holding back the flood
^G They said we'd never dance again

^{Dm} We will meet you where the lights are,
^{Am} The defenders, of the faith we are
^{Dm} Where the thunder turns around
^F They'll run so hard we'll tear the ground away ^{Am}
